

Want Your Own Vineyard or Winery?

Once a year all of North Carolina's vineyard owners and winemakers get together in February at the Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Winegrower's Association to hear speakers discuss ways to grow better grapes and make better wine. The NCWA Annual Meeting will be held at the Airport Marriott in Greensboro on Saturday February 3rd and Sunday February 4th, 2007.

This year the NCWA is adding a Friday afternoon and evening session (February 2nd) from 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. called "The Basics of Owning Your Own Vineyard and/or Winery." It will target people just like you who want to know what it takes to get into the wine business in North Carolina.

Seminar topics will include:

- How to Design and Build Your Own Vineyard
- Day to Day Issues in Vineyard Management
- The Basics of Turning Grapes into Wine
- Selling Your Wine
- Basic Sensory Evaluation of Wines

You don't need to know anything about growing grapes or making wine to participate. You only need to bring your passion for wine. The cost is $30 for the Friday session and includes all seminars, handouts and light hors d'oeuvres. There might even be some wine to taste! Just fill out the registration form below, enclose a check for $30, and send in to the address listed on the form.

Please have your registration postmarked no later than January 26, 2007. If you wish to stay at the hotel the night of the event, the Airport Marriot is offering a special rate of $89 per night (breakfast included). Just mention you are registering for the NCWA Annual Meeting to get the special rate. For information on the rest of the 2007 Annual Meeting, registration fees, educational seminars, vendor exhibits and more, surf over to the NCWA website at www.ncwinegrowers.com. If you have questions you can always contact us by sending an email to info@ncwinegrowers.com.
